

Anthony J. Rubi

Dr. Kevin Zadai, Instructor

Deliverance Made Easy Level #1

30 September 2023

As I reflect upon this course, I think that it's an interesting concept that there were hybrids (humanoid animals) on the earth during Noah's time. I don't think anything in this doctrine could be considered heresy. On the other hand, it may also give us a reference to where the idea for the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles came from, as a matter of fact, this may also be where all the anthropomorphic characters in fantasy shows and movies came from. I've seen my unfair share of creatures in the spirit realm that I recognized from Hollywood movies. But as I share the doctrine of Noah's hybrids with my friends at my church, we all agree that it may have been possible.

On a side note, for years I used to wonder why the liver was mentioned so much in scripture and why diviners in history would look into the livers of animals to predict the future. Whatever way people look at it, the concept of bacteria and the topic of the liver were interesting. I had no idea that the way to get into the DNA and the genetics was through the liver. However The National Institutes of Health label DNA manipulation with a nice family-friendly name and call it—Liver-Directed Gene Therapy.

Now when it comes to the topic of praying against demons in the second heaven, the late “John Paul Jackson” addressed the same concern for the jurisdiction that God gave the saints. He wrote about the topic in a book called, Needless Casualties of War. “John Paul Jackson” attributed praying against the enemy in the second heaven as a form of rebellion against God’s set boundaries for the church. And that the body of Christ was only commissioned by Jesus to war against earthbound entities. Because The Apostle Paul explained in Ephesians Chapter #6 that we are to stand.

However, it hurts to hear that Christians have died when they did the same things at Warrior Notes School of Ministry—because I used to do the same thing in my past as well, which later resulted in several head attacks on my life. I think that the enemy deceives people to war against spirits in the second heaven so that Christians could be found in violation of God’s prescribed boundaries, which would open spiritual doors for demons to attack the disciples of Jesus in the church.