Divine Delay Level #3

I felt like the first video of Level #3 should have been labeled Revenge of The Hybrids, or maybe The Doctrine of Hybrids. No, I have a better title idea for you—The Hybrids Strike Back!

With all the weird stuff that was spoken about in the multiple lessons of this course, I'm not a skeptic, I've seen demonic activity that proves demons look like anthropomorphic animals. All that stuff seen in the comic books and movies had to come from somewhere, and I believe that those demons channeled their image into the media through unsaved people's imagination.

Throughout the years (after I surrendered my life to Jesus) I've seen face-to-face the following characters in real life: The Green Goblin from the Spider-Man comic books, the Alien from the 1979 movie, The gremlin from the 1984 movie, etc. and the list is so exhaustive that there's no room in this reflection paper to explain everything to avoid writing a demon dictionary.

On the other hand, concerning the topic of Cain who killed his brother, Dr. Kevin Zadai insinuates that the mark that God put on Cain, turned Cain into a half animal half human being. With that said, I'm not so sure about that statement, especially with Cain turning into another creature race that altered his genetics making him a reptile type of being.

However, Dr. Zadai did say that terrible creatures were being born through women, that part makes sense because other nations were practicing bestiality and defiling themselves with hybridization after the flood—just as much as they were before the flood, and God saw those abominations taking place and spoke about it in Leviticus:

“Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion. Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you: And the land is defiled: therefore I do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomiteth out her inhabitants.”

Leviticus 18:23-25 (KJV)

I have to admit that these doctrines seem too strange for the modern church to talk about today, but just because the modern church wants to ignore the elephant in the room—that doesn't mean the elephant doesn't exist. Regardless of these facts, I'd like to meet with Dr. Kevin Zadai someday and compare notes with him on all these topics, when will this be? Only time will tell.

Aside from that, Dr. Kevin Zadai also said that the ultimate test that I will go through is to blame God for every bad thing that circumstances send my way. That makes sense, but if the blame has to go to someone, why not ask God to show me who I could blame, and then pray for God to give me justice against them?

Dr. Kevin Zadai also said that Satan wants all the wealth and doesn't want a Christian to have any of it. Proof of the devil not wanting godly men to be rich is found in the following verses:

“Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought? Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.”

Job 1:9-11 (KJV)

This was an eye-opening doctrine for me because that proves to me that the kingdom of darkness wants me financially lacking for the rest of my life—something I’ll never let happen to me and my house in Jesus' name! If the devil can petition God to take it all away from me, then through the blood of Jesus, I petition my Heavenly Father to counter satan’s thieving practices against me, my house, my health, wealth, and finances—in Jesus' name, amen.
