I have learned the importance of humility, the teacher was right, we as a people get prideful at times and seriously need to humble ourselves, for it is written:

Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.”

James 4:10 (KJV)

The topic of changing your and somebody else's destiny and future by either doing good or doing evil was an eye-opening reality for me. Because it never ceases to surprise me just how closely connected humanity is with each other.

I feel like there are people who were called to help me in business and ministry, but because those people were caught up in the bondage of sin, I either never had a chance to meet them, or they just lived in sin in the church and stopped hearing God's voice to get involved with my team.

Either way, it seems completely unreasonable (on man's part) that people were called by God to help me, but because they were trapped in the POW camps of sin, they were stolen from by the devil and were eventually of no use to anybody, or they followed sin away from me, the same way a fish would follow after the bait before it gets hooked. The result is that I got delayed in different branches of ministry and business, forcing me to settle for something that was not God's best in my life. I hate it!!!

We have to deal with pride all the time, if not from people, then from demonic influences, and if that's not bad enough, turn on your television, and here comes the weed-seeds through the airstreams of broadcast television where you better just keep the TV turned off.

The constant tolerance of such things causes God to force people to go through times and seasons that will humble them. This is a good thing, because of having to hear somebody at church brag about their job title, instead, it causes people to give God the glory for their job.

You cannot allow pride to grow into a full crop, because after a while if you don't weed the pride out, it will be more difficult to weed it out of yourself past a certain grace period, before destruction comes knocking on your door.
