Prayer Made Easy Level #2

I admit that the teachings in this course were really good; especially when Dr. Kevin Zadai started talking about Samson and his vow in The Old Testament. I like how he elaborated that the reason why The Spirit of God departed from Samson had nothing to do with Samson's hair getting cut off, The Spirit departed because Samson didn't keep his vow to God.

This was interesting to me because it was a good topic. I also liked how Dr. Kevin Zadai spoke out about the importance of keeping your word. In my research, I discovered that when people never keep their word, they break your confidence and trust in them. Even if you forgive that person, the trust isn't reestablished just because you forgive them. The trust account remains at zero until they can be found trustworthy again. And if they never reestablish trust with you or the community, they go into debt, and before you know it:

“The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is slave to the lender.”

Proverbs 22:7 (NIV)

The borrower being the person who broke your trust and confidence in them suddenly becomes your slave. Causing them to ignore and avoid you (the bill collector) whenever you're around them. This means that person won't be trusted again until they pay their debt to you or society.

I loved the teaching about praying Ephesians 1:17-23. In some of those verses I already started praying for myself and my family. However, I was astonished when Dr. Zadai spoke about people in mental hospitals who went crazy because they thought they committed an unpardonable sin. In the past, I had researched what caused mental problems for people, spoken about in The Bible, but I never knew this caused mental problems too. But then again, anything that causes someone to be deceived seems to lead to craziness eventually.

In conclusion, I'd like to say that I agree with what Dr. Zadai said, concerning that you don't want to walk in unforgiveness because you're allowing yourself to be hooked up to an evil spirit in the soul realm. I believe this to be true, because several years ago I had a vision of somebody (a victim) being hurt by another person (a perpetrator), and when the victim stored the perpetrator inside a prison room of unforgiveness in his heart, the demons inside that perpetrator went inside the victim's heart too.
