Prayer Made Easy Level #3

I was encouraged when I heard that Charles Stanley before he passed away was baptized in the gifts of the Holy Spirit and that he spoke in tongues. I like Charles Stanley, I used to listen to him a lot when I was in my early 20s on SOS 1120 a.m. Christian radio. Therefore I was very much encouraged when I heard that he was baptized with a gift to the Holy Spirit.

On the other hand, I have to admit that it gets ridiculous having to address the whole cessation movement in America; where you have pastors who don't believe in the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and they allow people (who do believe) to come into their Churches and listen to them preach, pay tithes and offerings, and serve, while the pastors won't officially speak against the gifts—they just won't preach on them. And when they get around to the Bible verses that do talk about the gifts of The Holy Spirit in sermons, those weak-in-the-faith pastors just skim over them and pretend like they they didn't see them before they change the subject. It's so absurd, that I get the feeling that these pastors should be sent to prison like Jim Bakker. Why? Because Jesus said:

“He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.”

Luke 16:10 (KJV)

So if somebody's going to be unjust with being on cessationist, who knows what else they're going to be unjust with? But only time will tell because:

“But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure your sin will find you out.”

Numbers 32:23 (KJV)

On a side note, I like what Dr. Kevin Zadai said about praying in The Spirit and agreeing with Jesus concerning what you're praying about in tongues. After you pray in The Spirit, tell Jesus, yes Lord Jesus, I agree with You, and I agree with what was just said. I like that, so if that helps in acceleration, I'm going to have to start verbalizing that from now on. I was also encouraged when Dr. Kevin Zadai said that he stomps his foot or fist on something (in reverberating faith) to receive an answer to prayer. It reminded me of when I was going through a financial trial in 2016, and I pounded my fist on something hard and said in faith, I don't care what my circumstances say, I'm going to trust in Jesus! And the next afternoon I got a call for a new job with the amount of pay I was praying for. I also like the doctrine of raising my hands in prayer to receive what I am asking as well. To Jesus Christ be the glory!!!
