Dr. Kevin Zadai, Instructor

Prayer School Level #3

22 January 2024

There is a huge discrepancy in what's taught in modern-day churches, because many of them only emphasize one or two types of teachings, causing their Bible teachings to come off weak.

On a side note, Dr. Kevin Zadai is right, if you are found "not guilty" in a court of law—there should be some kind of recompense. Back in 2013, before I surrendered my life to Jesus. I was arrested by the police over somebody bearing false accusations against me. A year later—and a traumatized soul there afterward, I got a "not guilty" verdict after the whole thing went to trial. And after all these years, I think it's time for me to receive some kind of recompense for all the pain and suffering that they caused me.

"Demons don't want you to gain any momentum and break free." I believe this statement to be true, for years I struggled to gain momentum in ministry because people kept allowing themselves to be used as human roadblocks against me, and the things I was trying to accomplish for God. And then one day I came across a verse in Exodus that said:

"But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel."

Exodus 1:12 (KJV)

Back in 2021, having faith in God and His multiplication techniques, and miracles, I had decided to pray for God to send me affliction. Something I would later regret, because a short time later after I got tested to a near breaking point, I came out of that long-winded trial and was given rest before God gave me supernatural momentum as a Warrior Notes School of Ministry student—earning my associates and bachelor's degree in a year. To Jesus be the glory!
