The Prophetic Made Easy Level #2

08 October 2023

I liked this teaching, I especially appreciated the fact that there were some references to The Apostle Paul; telling Timothy to wage war with his prophecies:

“This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare.”

1 Timothy 1:18 (KJV)

Also, he tells pastor Timothy to fan the words of his prophecy in the fire:

“That is why I remind you to fan into flame the gracious gift of God, [that inner fire—the special endowment] which is in you through the laying on of my hands [with those of the elders at your ordination].”

2 Timothy 1:6 (Amplified Bible)

Once upon a disciple's time, in 2016 I stepped out in faith by doing something that I knew would please God, and I trusted that God would help me in my journey. That very night I had an angel visitation, telling me (in this paraphrase) that because I trusted God in doing what I did, I would never be broke again. This meant that I would never be financially broke again.

However, the kingdom of darkness heard that prophecy too, and for four months, I was tested in my faith, trusting in Jesus in the hard times before the testing/trial period had ended. To this day, I say out loud, "I will never be broke again."

Now I consider the easy way to walk in the prophetic, which consists of simply reading what the scriptures say, and understanding the way God wants to operate. This seemed to make so much sense, that I had to write it down in this reflection paper. Especially since Paul said that all can prophesy (all being the body of Christ). Dr. Zadai also said, that if you want to prophesy all you have to do is start talking about Jesus all the time. And this works, because:

“And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

Revelation 19:10 (KJV)

And God is now speaking through His Son:

“God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds.”

Hebrews 1:1-2 (KJV)

I love it! I wish I had come across this easy teaching in the middle of January of 2015 when I surrendered my life to Jesus Christ my Lord.
